

WORK QUIETLY AND DISTURB NOBODY

Mobile Mob Lynches Negro in Heart of the Residence Section.

MOBILE, ALA., January 23.—So quietly did they go about their work that the usual serenity of the Mobile past midnight hour was but slightly disturbed when at 1:15 this morning a handful of determined men took a negro from the county jail and lynched him almost in the heart of the city's residence district. The victim, Douglas Robertson, a mulatto of powerful build and for years regarded as a desperate character, who on Thursday shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Philip Fatch and wounded another officer, was led from his cell to the place of the lynching so quietly that the residents along the path of the mob's march were undisturbed. The mob had intended, it is thought, taking Robertson to the scene of his crime, but on account of his cries, in spite of an effort to gag him, his captors hanged him to a tree on the southeast corner of St. Emanuel and Church streets, just one block from Mobile's most prominent residence thoroughfare.

Jailers Overpowered. According to one authority, two men walked into the jail and covered Deputy Sheriffs Gillis and Krouse with revolvers and commanded them to get up their hands, accompanying the order with a demand that they open the door leading to the cells. The deputies, powerless and caught unawares, obeyed without resistance. Probably twenty more in the meantime had gone upstairs, leaving the two men to guard the deputies. Later two of these came back down and demanded the keys of Robertson's cell, which were given them.

Gillis and Krouse were then left alone and ordered not to leave their seats or use the phone under penalty of death. The mob, securing the man, started with their captive toward the scene of his crime. The negro was not heard to utter a word when his captors started away with him. However, before they had gone more than three blocks he in some way extricated the gag from his mouth. Like a flash three revolver shots disturbed the quiet of the night, and in a moment a large three-quarter-inch rope was thrown across a tree and the negro was hanged.

Coroner's Verdict. At 2:15 o'clock the coroner arrived on the scene. Selecting a jury, which adjourned to the police station after viewing the body, the following verdict was rendered:

"At an inquisition taken and held this 24 day of January upon the body of Douglas Robertson, we, the jury, find that he came to his death by being hanged by parties unknown to this jury."

After hanging about an hour the body was cut down by the police and taken to the guard house, where it will be turned over to the city section later in the day.

While trying to arrest Robertson Thursday on a charge of assault and battery, Deputy Sheriff Fatch and Deputy Sheriff William McCarron were fired upon by the negro at close range, the first striking Fatch in the stomach, from which he died Thursday night. McCarron was slightly wounded in the left foot. The negro was captured after the wounded officers had chased him for several blocks, firing at him.

The capture was made by two other officers and when arrested it was found that the negro had been wounded three times by bullets from the revolvers of Fatch and McCarron.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED
Sismographs Note Severe Disturbances in Continental Europe.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The sismographs of the continent and England recorded a severe earthquake at a few minutes before 4 o'clock this morning. In some instances the intenseness indicated by the needles was nearly as great as that recorded last month at the time of the Messina. The estimates of distance vary from 2,000 to 3,000 miles to the eastward of the point of record. This would place the location of the disturbance in the Caspian region or beyond, in Asiatic Russia, Afghanistan, Northern India, and, swinging more to the south, the extreme of Arabia and Central Africa. The disturbance also could have been in the Indian ocean. No reports have come in from anywhere in this designated area to indicate the occurrence of any catastrophe.

Felt in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The sismographs at the weather bureau recorded an earthquake of distant origin late in the evening of Jan. 23, that is much the same in character and intensity as the record obtained at the time of the recent great Italian earthquake. The first preliminary tremors began at 10 o'clock 12 minutes and 5 seconds P. M., seventy-fifth meridian time. The second preliminary tremor began at 11 o'clock 10 minutes and 10 seconds P. M., and the third at 11 o'clock 10 minutes and 10 seconds P. M. The records and an exact beginning cannot be stated. The strong portion of the motion was of noticeably long duration and lasted from 10 o'clock and 30 minutes until after 11 o'clock, the whole earthquake having a duration of about one and a half hours.

able calculations can be made as to the distance of the disturbance. Apparently, however, the origin is nearer Washington than in the case of the Italian earthquake, probably at a distance of 4,000 miles or thereabouts.

Vienna Records It.
VIENNA, Jan. 23.—The sismographs at Vienna and Pola, the naval station on the Adriatic, registered very strong earthquakes at 1 o'clock this morning. According to the calculations of experts the scene of the disturbance was about 4,000 miles from here, and if the district was inhabited, the visitation must have been disastrous.

THREE KILLED
Collision on the St. Louis Express Caused Injuries to Many.

ALTOONA, PA., Jan. 23.—The rear-end collision between the first and second sections of the St. Louis express, on the Pennsylvania railroad, near St. Marys Hill, west of here today caused the death of three men and the injuring of a dozen others. The fact that the passengers on the second section were eight cars removed from the point of collision probably averted a greater loss of life.

The first section of the train, bound for Chicago, was made up of two engines, two express cars, a combination car, one coach, two sleepers and a parlor car in the order named. Twenty-six miles west of Altoona the first section was held up by several freight trains that had stopped to remove some large rocks that had become loosened from the hills and had rolled down on the tracks. The place where the trains halted is on the western slope of the Allegheny mountains. The second section crashed into the parlor car of the first section and demolished it completely. There were only three persons in it, Mr. Taylor, the passenger, and the two Pullman men. All were killed. The first locomotive plowed entirely through the parlor car and came to a standstill at the end of the next car, a sleeper. Several of the cars on the first train were derailed, as were the two engines and the first two express cars of the second section.

All of the passengers injured were on the first section. None of the second section was hurt.

TO ADVERTISE SOUTH
President Parker Tells of Plans of Southern Commercial Congress.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., January 23.—In a statement to-day concerning the plans of the Southern Commercial Congress to erect what will be known as the Southern Building on the St. Mathew's Church site, in Washing-

Mrs. Lorena Smith, of Branford, Conn., who is 94 years old, says she is bright and active and retains her mental faculties through the constant use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey which builds her system up and restores the vigor and strength of youth.

Mrs. Smith recently wrote: "For a number of years I have been using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and found it very beneficial to me, and am still using it. I have tried other tonics, but find Duffy's seems to suit my constitution the best and does me the most good. I am now in my 94th year. Am bright and active and retain all my mental faculties."

Every testimonial is guaranteed genuine, and is published in good faith with full consent.

Mrs. Smith's case is similar to that of thousands of others, both aged men and women, who have been kept hale, hearty and vigorous by the constant use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a medicine. It is a predigested food which has a stimulating and tonic effect upon the system. It builds nerve tissues, prevents decay and keeps the entire system in a normal, healthy condition.

ton, President John M. Parker said: "We are now endeavoring to secure in the city of Washington a board of fifteen trustees of the highest character, who shall constitute a perpetual board, with the power to fill vacancies in their ranks caused by death, resignation or removal from Washington. This board will be composed of such able and patriotic southern men as to insure for all time an intelligent and faithful administration of the interests entrusted to them, and will be announced as soon as practical."

No officer, except the clerical force, will receive a salary, while the officers are cheerfully given, because the officers believe the time, energy and money expended will be returned manifold in advantages to our people.

REMOVE LAST HOPE
Extradition Treaty With Honduras Leaves No Place for Criminals.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 23.—Through a favorable report made to the Senate to-day from the Committee on Foreign Relations on an extradition treaty with Honduras, steps were taken to break up the last remaining asylum of persons who commit crimes in the United States. Under this treaty extradition of criminals will be possible with all governments of the world.

The treaty with Honduras is particularly important because of the fact that there is in that country a colony of fugitives from justice who have gone there from the continental United States.

At an executive session of the Senate the report was adopted and the treaty ratified. Arbitration treaties with Austria-Hungary, Costa Rica and Chile also were ratified.

HIGH TIDES
Sweep Away Dykes and Railroad Beds and Wreck Launch.

PORTLAND, ORE., Jan. 23.—Phenomenally high tides, assuming, in places, proportions of a tidal wave, are reported from points all along the Pacific coast from British Columbia to the California coast. At Marshfield the high tides have swept away the dykes in the southern portion of the city, letting in water which did a great deal of damage, and causing damage that will reach into thousands of dollars. Carlos Wittick, five years old, playing on the wharf at the north end, was swept into the sea and drowned.

A gasoline launch with eight passengers aboard was swamped, but reports say that all were rescued. West of Astoria the tide reached a mark three feet above any previous tide record.

Dykes and railroad bed at Warrenton were washed out.

GO FOR RATTLERS
Bill Introduced in Iowa Legislature Putting Bounty on Snakes.

DES MOINES, IOWA, January 23.—Senator Robert Quigley to-day introduced a bill placing a bounty of 50 cents a head on every rattlesnake killed in Iowa. The bill follows the serious illness of former Senator Byron Newberry, whose poisoning by the bite of a rattlesnake last summer made it impossible for him to take an active part in last fall's campaign, thus causing his defeat.

It is asserted that the hills along the Mississippi River teem with rattlesnakes, which have multiplied so rapidly as to imperil the lives of residents.

CROMWELL TESTIFIES
Thought to Have Told Grand Jury About the Panama Deal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The federal grand jury, which is inquiring into the alleged libels of the New York World and the Indianapolis News, met to-day an hour earlier than usual. There was but one witness, William Nelson Cromwell, the New York lawyer, who figured prominently in the Panama canal purchase. While no one would volunteer any information on the subject, it is believed that Mr. Cromwell told the whole story of his connection with the Panama canal purchase, especially with that phase of the deal known as the "Panic of 1906," the $40,000,000 to the foreign shareholders. In an interview last fall Mr. Cromwell said that the money came back from American hands.

SNOW AVAILANCHE SWEEPS MOUNTAIN

Four Men Killed; Score Had Narrow Escapes From Death.

GRAND JUNCTION, COL., January 23.—Four men were killed and more than a score had narrow escapes from death when an avalanche of snow swept over the Camp Bird mine at Ouray late yesterday. The four men were talking in the cook house when almost without warning thousands of tons of snow rocks and dirt swept down the mountain side. The shanty was directly in the path of the avalanche and the men were hurled into the canon and covered with snow. It will be midnight before the bodies can be recovered. Caught in the steep mountain trails by the blizzard which raged all day are eight six-horse teams, and the Camp Bird bullion stage carrying $6,000 in gold and many passengers. By the time the police had heard in the path of the slide and great anxiety is felt for their safety. The avalanche which swept the men to their death was fifty feet high and it came down the mountain side with irresistible force. The men working in the mine had for their lives but the shaft building was not in the path of the slide.

Dog a Hero.

It was close enough, however, to tremble as the avalanche rushed by. One of the heroes of the disaster is a large dog owned by a teamster. The dog saw the slide coming and made a desperate effort to drive out of the way. He was caught and buried. The dog rushed at the snow, began to dig furiously, and kept at it until he reached the buried man, who was unhurt.

"Dad" Austin, hero of many a wild ride through the mountains and one of the best stage drivers in the West, heard the slide when it started. He was driving a six-horse stage full with people in the horse-drawn plunging along at a gallop when he recognized the sound. Instantly he threw all his weight on the brake and succeeded in stopping the stage on the very edge of the avalanche. The two leaders were caught by the mass of snow and debris and carried down the canyon hundreds of feet below.

Another almost miraculous escape was that of Sam Morrie, one of the freight teamsters. He reached the top of the avalanche when his foot slipped and he was plunged into a snow bank. The slide passed over him and he crawled out in safety.

ARBITRATION TREATIES
This Country Now Signed Up With All but Germany and Russia.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 23.—With the signing to-day of an arbitration treaty with Brazil, Secretary Taft has concluded such a compact with twenty-four countries of the world. The list comprises all the principal nations except Germany and Russia, who are not favorably disposed to the form followed in the treaties with the other countries. The treaties signed are the result of a series of conferences at the Hague conference. The question to be arbitrated in each case are first to be submitted to the senate for ratification.

The officers who were attempting to arrest Khoury were shot by him but were not dangerously wounded.

NASHVILLE, TENN., January 23.—The bill prohibiting the manufacture of intoxicating liquor in the State, which passed both houses of the General Assembly, will probably go to the Governor Monday, when the executive will have five days in which to consider it.

It is not believed he will sign the bill. The general impression is that it will be passed over his veto.

Taste Is Sure Stomach Guide

A Barometer Which Never Fails, Though Seldom Believed.

"Taste is the direct guide to the stomach; and the taste buds are connected by the nerves with the stomach itself. If the stomach is in poor health or disorder, if the stomach or its juices are out of tone, the blood is fermented by a change in the alkaline or acid condition, and the taste buds are affected both directly and indirectly."

"The taste buds are in the tongue, and are mounted by hair-like papillae, and are covered by a thin layer of mucus. When you taste these buds rise up and absorb the taste of the food, and the nerves tell the stomach, and the food is acceptable or not, just as the stomach feels."

The above remarks on taste come from an eminent authority, and simply explain why when one smells cooking or sees food, one thinks he can eat, but when he tastes he learns the stomach is out of business.

To the person who cannot taste anything who relies on food and simply forces himself to eat, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets hold the secret of enjoyable eating, perfect digestion and renewed general health.

Most men wait until their stomachs are completely sickened before they think seriously of restoring nature. When your taste for food is lost it is a certain sign the stomach needs attention. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure such stomachs. They restore sweetness of breath, renew gastric juices, enrich the blood, and give the strength and rest necessary to general duty.

Forty thousand physicians use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and every druggist carries them in stock; price, 50c per box. Send us your name and address, and we will send you a trial package free by mail. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

KILLED THREE AND HEMSELVES

Discharged Italian Workmen
Try to Steal the Week's Pay-Roll.

LONDON, January 23.—Five persons are dead, and more than twenty others are in hospitals in Walthamstow, a suburb of London, as the result of a sensational attempt made to-day by two Italians at highway robbery. The Italians were run down and surrounded by a posse and finally committed suicide.

Three of the victims, including a policeman and a young boy, lie dead. Two policemen and three boys are among the wounded.

The Italians had been employed in a rubber factory, but having been discharged they planned to revenge themselves on their employers. They lay in wait near the factory and seized a bag of money containing the week's pay of all the hands. Then they started on a mad dash down the street.

The police were summoned and started in pursuit in a motor car. As they approached the Italians the robbers opened fire with automatic pistols on their pursuers. A number of men and boys on the street were shot down before they could recover from their surprise and get to cover. The Italians kept ahead of the automobile until they came up with a trolley. Then they jumped out and making their way to the front platform, forced the driver at the point of their revolvers, to throw on full speed. The car went thundering down the track with the police automobile still in pursuit.

At a point near Tottenham marshes the Italians made the motorman slow down, and jumping from the car, sought a position on the marshes for their last stand. By the time the police had been joined by several hundred laboring men. Together the pursuers advanced upon the robbers, the police in the van. The Italians were surrounded and hard pressed.

They saw their position was hopeless and after the exchange of a few shots they turned their weapons upon themselves and committed suicide.

SUBMITS PLANS

The commandants present included Rear Admiral Strauss of Norfolk; Goodrich, of New York; Pendleton, Ohio; Swift, of Boston, and Moore, of Portsmouth.

The essential feature of Mr. Newberry's plan of reorganization contemplates practically abolishment of bureau systems in the navy yards, and the substitution of a system of work and secure simple methods of administration.

DEPOT IS BURNED.
Flames Destroy Building of C. & O. at Williamsburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., January 23.—The depot of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company at this place was today destroyed by fire of unknown origin. The train arriving this morning starting in the Adams express office, the flames were beyond control when they were discovered. The fire company was helpless because of the poor water pressure, and for a time it looked like the adjoining building, recently erected by the Chesapeake and Ohio, would be destroyed. A bucket brigade formed by citizens saved this. Only a few minutes after the fire started the building was saved, while the contents of the Adams express and the Western Union telegraph offices were entirely consumed. There was a long string of freight cars on the siding, but these were pushed up the tracks and were not damaged.

CHAPTER IS CLOSED.
Cregger Sentenced to Sixteen Years in Prison for Murder.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WYTHEVILLE, VA., January 23.—The court today sentenced Dave Cregger, Jr., to the penitentiary for sixteen years, in compliance with the verdict of the jury, at an earlier day, in the murder of a woman named Mary. The attorney for the prisoner made formal motion for a new trial, which was overruled by the court. It is conceded that there is no error in the record for which a new trial would be granted, and no appeal will be taken. Cregger will be taken to the penitentiary at midnight. His attorneys are notified and sent for him. This closes the last chapter in one of the most deplorable tragedies ever occurring in the commonwealth, and one by which two men lost their lives.

Hutchings, an attorney of Muskogee and a former Danville man, is said to be interested. The two witnesses from Danville are accompanied with the nature of the proceedings.

DEMANDS DAMAGES.
Bereaved Mother Claims She Was Awakened

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., January 23.—Charging that she was insulted and assaulted by an agent of the Norfolk and Western Railway for 31,000 damages, and the grounds on which the award of the verdict will be asked are the most unique in the history of the local circuit court.

Recently Mrs. Overton was awarded a judgment against the company for the death of her son, who was run over and killed by a Norfolk and Western train. It is charged that the railway, by one of its agents, W. C. Lindsey, on the 21st day of August, 1908, went into the house occupied by plaintiff, and while the remains of her son were lying in the casket entered the house and committed an assault and battery upon the plaintiff. In this, that he seized and laid hold of her by her arm and rudely presented a paper containing a typewritten form of release by the plaintiff and others of all claim against defendant by reason of the death of Lary Overton, and rudely demanded of her that she should sign the paper. She refused to sign the paper and ordered

TO ANNEX HUNTERSVILLE.
Committee of Council Will Meet to Discuss Project.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., January 23.—The annexation committee of the Council has been called to meet Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for the purpose of considering the annexation of Huntersville as the Ninth Ward of the city. A thorough discussion of the project will be had and some decision reached.

City Engineer Brooks has been asked to be present and give figures, etc., for the sewerage of the proposed ward and other details coming under his care. It is understood that the sewerage question is serious, as it is declared that the outlet cannot be through the sewerage system, or into Turner's creek. This fact alone will make it necessary to construct an independent sewerage system at a great cost; in fact, may prevent immediate annexation. There are approximately 10,000 residents in Huntersville.

SHOT TO DEATH.
Trivial Quarrel at Country Sawmill Ends in Murder.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PULASKI, VA., January 23.—Word was received here last night that Rhoades was shot and instantly killed by a man named Simpkins at a sawmill located in the mountains, about six miles from the city of Martinsburg. It seems that both men were drinking heavily, and fell out over some trivial matter, and Rhoades started shooting with a knife. When the latter drew pistol and shot him five times, two bullets entering the head and three lodging in the body.

Rhoades leaves a wife and two brothers. Simpkins was taken to the hospital, and although the sheriff and his deputies started in pursuit, they have been unable to locate him yet.

The adjustment of a wage scale is expected to follow.

Makes New Record.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DURHAM, N. C., January 23.—The Benner Warehouse to-day made a record-breaker in the way of selling leaf tobacco. It sold 64,294 pounds for $11,752.90, making an average of about 18c a hundred. This is the best single house sale made in Durham in many years. If not in North Carolina, the Durham market is greatly benefited by the new macadamized Roxboro Road, which Durham county has completed and opened to travel to the county line. Since the opening of the tobacco year in September the Durham market has sold about 1,600,000 pounds of the leaf.
